“Her life became a flame that ignited the fire of our hope.”

“Hope will not disappoint us...” The words of the Apostle Paul became the motto of this blessed Jubilee Year 2025. We truly need to be renewed in hope for true life. However, on our journey to eternity, we need a beacon, a light that will be a ray of hope for us. Undoubtedly, Jesus Christ is the true light that penetrates all the dark corners of our history. But those who have accepted his light and accompany us from eternity with the radiance of their lives also help us to follow the path to Christ faithfully. And the first and most vivid testimony is given to us by our Heavenly Mother Mary. She is the guide who directs our steps on the path to God.

Her life became a flame that ignited the fire of our hope. With her “yes,” the Immaculate Virgin opened the door of our world to God Himself. She became the living Ark of the New Covenant, in which the Eternal Word of the Father was incarnated, and the Son of God became one of us.

It is true that all the graces God gives us come through the hands of his Mother. “Mary is the mirror of the mystery of universal grace.” The heart of Jesus is the source from which the water of eternal life flows. And Mary's heart became the channel for the flow of this water: it penetrates all earthly obstacles so that we may quench the thirst of our souls with it. Mary gave Christ a human body, which He offers us as the Sacrament of the Bread of eternal life. Her immaculate womb was the first tabernacle, so she herself is the receptacle of the Most Holy Eucharist.

Today we turn to the Blessed Virgin, present among us in the glorious miraculous icon of the Mother of God of Hoshiv. She holds in her arms the fullness of our hope—her Son, whom she, as a human mother, gave birth to from the Heavenly Father through the power and action of the Holy Spirit, and in whom the whole human race has placed its hope from the beginning of creation until the end of the world.

(This Miraculous Icon of the Mother of God of Hoshiv was present for veneration in our church last week, and will be here this Sunday).
